SHARE YOUR STORY!

Stein Hospice is looking for individuals to share their stories!

If you have had a loved one on our services, had a child attend Camp Good Grief, participated in our Bereavement services or utilized any other Stein Hospice service, we would love to hear from you!

With your permission, we may use your story on social media, our InTouch newsletter and/or at the Stein Hospice Care Center.

There are three ways you can participate. See below for details on each option.

WRITE YOUR STORY

For this option, you will be asked to write your own story. Share your experience with Stein Hospice in 1-2 pages and then submit it for final touch-ups. We encourage you to share 1-5 photos for us to use as well.

PROVIDE A SHORT QUOTE/CARD

If 1-2 pages is too much, that's okay! Simply write a short quote or fill out a card with your appreciation to Stein Hospice. Include 1-2 photographs.

VIDEO TESTIMONIAL

If writing isn't something that interests you, but you would like to "tell" your story. You can simply video-record yourself telling your story/talking about your experience with Stein Hospice. This can be as simple or as creative as you would like.

Stein Hospice Chain of Hearts

February is the month of love. We decided to use this as an opportunity to talk about the love that exists for Stein Hospice by creating a digital chain of hearts via social media. It was called the #SteinHospiceChainofHearts. To participate, you simply had to take a picture of yourself making a hand-heart and include one sentence that started with: "I love Stein Hospice because..."

We were able to create a digital chain that was over 30 links long and were able to post a photo and sentence every single day throughout the month of February. Take a look at what people had to say.
